Attorneys for United States of America

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
SAN FRANCISCO DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,)	CASE NO. 24-CR-543 JSC
Plaintiff,)	[PROPOSED] DETENTION ORDER
v.)
LOEL AMADOR,)
Defendant.)

On October 16, 2024, defendant Loel Amador was charged by Indictment with racketeering conspiracy, with murder alleged as a special sentencing factor, in violation of Title 18 United States Code section 1962(d).

This matter came before the Court on November 12, 2024, for a detention hearing. The defendant was present and represented by Melissa Lubin. Assistant United States Attorney Richard Ewenstein appeared for the government. The government moved for detention, and the defendant opposed. At the hearing, counsel submitted proffers and arguments regarding detention.

Upon consideration of the facts, proffers and arguments presented, and for the reasons stated on the record, the Court finds by clear and convincing evidence that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the safety of any other person or the community. Accordingly, the 1 defendant must be detained pending trial in this matter.

2 The present order supplements the Court's findings and order at the detention hearing and serves
3 as written findings of fact and a statement of reasons as required by Title 18, United States Code,
4 Section 3142(i)(1). As noted on the record, the Court makes the following findings as the bases for its
5 conclusion: the defendant has a serious criminal record with multiple felony convictions. He is charged
6 in a murder (as a special sentencing factor), and the weight of the government's evidence appears to be
7 substantial. The Court does not believe that there are any conditions of release that could assure the
8 safety of the community. This finding is made without prejudice to the defendant's right to seek review
9 of defendant's detention, or file a motion for reconsideration if circumstances warrant it.

10 Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3142(i), IT IS ORDERED THAT:

11 1. The defendant be, and hereby is, committed to the custody of the Attorney General for 12 confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving
13 sentences or being held in custody pending appeal;

14 2. The defendant be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with counsel;
15 and

16 3. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the government,
17 the person in charge of the corrections facility in which the defendant is confined shall deliver the 18 defendant to an authorized United States Marshal for the purpose of any appearance in connection with a 19 court proceeding.

20 IT IS SO ORDERED.

22 DATED: December 12, 2024

HONORABLE THOMAS S. HIXSON
United States Magistrate Judge
